1. Project Overview

DormBattles is a browser based gaming league for college and school students. This document describes every asset the prototype needs, the visual direction, the color palette, the typography, the screen inventory, and the structure of the sample data sets. It is self contained, so the prototype can be built from this document alone. All assets are free to use, and the prototype runs locally with no paid service.

Project name	DormBattles
Tagline	Form a squad and battle online and offline
Category	Web Development
Platform	Modern desktop browser, responsive from 1024 px and up
Deliverable type	Static web app plus sample data sets
Primary goal	Demonstrate the player and organizer flows on sample data
Run	Locally with no paid service

2. Document Purpose

This assets document supports three readers. A developer uses it as the single source for the look, the data, and the screens. A designer uses the visual direction, palette, and typography to keep the interface consistent. A reviewer uses the data sets and the screen inventory to confirm that every page shows the expected sample data.

3. Visual Direction

The look is a dark gaming portal that is energetic and student focused. The home is a browse layout with a top navigation bar that has a search field, a left navigation sidebar, and rows of game cards grouped by section. Each game card has a colored cover, a game name, and an optional badge such as Top, Hot, or Updated. Use rounded corners near 12 px on cards and keep labels readable on the dark background.

4. Color Palette

9. Leaderboards

Two leaderboards are computed from the matches data, and both include online and offline results. Each win is worth 3 points, each draw is worth 1 point, and each loss is worth 0 points. The player leaderboard ranks players by total points with wins as the tie breaker. The squad leaderboard ranks squads by the sum of the points of their members.

9.1 Player leaderboard

Rank	Player	Squad	Total Points	Wins
1	Aanya Iyer	Nova Strikers	9	3
2	Dev Malhotra	Nova Strikers	9	3
3	Tara Menon	Pixel Phantoms	6	2
4	Arjun Pillai	Cyber Wolves	6	2
5	Zoya Sheikh	Cyber Wolves	4	1
6	Nikhil Bose	Pixel Phantoms	3	1
7	Riya Kapoor	Byte Raiders	3	1
8	Kabir Sethi	Byte Raiders	2	0

9.2 Squad leaderboard

Rank	Squad	Total Points
1	Nova Strikers	18
2	Cyber Wolves	10
3	Pixel Phantoms	9
4	Byte Raiders	5

10. Season Model

DormBattles runs on a monthly season model. Each season has a theme and a prize pool, and it runs from the first day of the month to the last day of the month. At the end of the month the active season closes, the points reset, and a new season becomes active with a fresh theme and a fresh prize pool. Past seasons remain visible with a status of closed.

11. Data Relationships

From	Field	To
User	squad_id	Squad
Squad	captain_id	User
Match	player_id	User
Match	squad_id	Squad
Match	game_id	Game
Match	season_id	Season
Channel	season_id	Season

12. Screens Reference and Usage Notes

The home screen layout is delivered as `reference_image.png` in the submission folder. It shows a dark gaming portal with a top navigation bar that has a search field, a left navigation sidebar, and rows of game cards grouped by section such as New Games, Season 2026, and Originals. Each card shows a colored cover and a game name. Build the browse home to follow those regions.

1. All identifiers are shared across the data sets, so summaries and the leaderboards line up.
2. Match results are mock data. There is no real game engine and no real time networking.
3. Online and offline results both feed the same leaderboards.
4. Every asset is placeholder quality and free to use, so the prototype can be shared and run locally.
